

Display of Pyrotechnics Application Information

For Tooele County's fire protection jurisdiction only (area in green below).
For another jurisdiction, contact that respective agency.

In order to set off any sort of pyrotechnics in Tooele County you will need to acquire a permit from the authority having jurisdiction. While setting off fireworks for the 4th of July or another celebration is an enjoyable way to spend an evening, pyrotechnics do pose certain fire risks. We'll gather information on the type of pyrotechnics you will be setting off, when and where you'll be setting them off, and will work with you to ensure you have a legal and safe celebration.

Pyrotechnics Permit Steps:

Step 1 – Submit application and pay fees:

Please fill out form below and pay fees. Fees must be paid before your plan review can begin.

Step 2 – Submit Plans:

Submit plans through email*: lloyd.evans@tooeleco.org

Step 3 – Plan review and project clearance letter:

After steps 1 and 2 are completed, the Tooele County Fire Department will conduct a plan review and issue a project clearance letter.

Step 4 – On site inspection day of event. Must schedule inspection 48 hours in advance.

Standby fees: standby by a Fire Department may be a condition of permit approval. Additional fees will apply.
